

“THE MOST IMPORTANT POSITION ONE CAN HOLD IN A DEMOCRACY”

By: Gary Cifra Date: July 25, 2012

As a taxpaying member of my country, I speak for myself as well as my fellow Americans. The president, vice president, senators, congressmen and women, mayors, police chiefs, military, firemen and other federal, state and city functionaries are our employees. They work for us.

Our tax dollars provide basic schooling, police, fire, and other services that are required for our society to function. Government is supposed to represent us and do our bidding.

I can proudly proclaim by right of birth, that I am a citizen. There is no position higher.
